

Memorabilia from the Hindenburg Crash

- Several girders from the Hindenburg, one of them still charred from the fiery disaster.
- Part of the internal walkway used to access different areas inside the airship for maintenance.
- Gas cell fabric remnants from the Hindenburg.
- A spoon from Hindenburg serving set.
- A luggage tag from the American Airlines/Airship Hindenburg joint venture.
- A patch from a German officer's uniform with Nazi Swastika.
- Canton newspaper of May 1937 with story about the Disaster.
- 1936 felt Lakehurst/Hindenburg pennant.
- Model of the "Hindenburg" rigid structure zeppelin.
- Set of photographs of airship, including Passenger lounge area

(These items are from the Lighter-Than-Air Society's collection, as well as from private collections.)